

The Significance of Phenomenology Today

Dr. Thomas Fuchs

Professor
University of Heidelberg

This CHAIN seminar, organized by the Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (A) “Phenomenology of Altered Consciousness: An Interdisciplinary Approach through Philosophy, Mathematics, Neuroscience, and Robotics” (PI: Shigeru Taguchi), will feature Professor Thomas Fuchs of Heidelberg University. Professor Fuchs is an internationally renowned psychiatrist and philosopher, who is well known for his research on phenomenology and phenomenological psychiatry with an emphasis on embodiment, especially in the direction of enactivism. In this lecture, he will talk about the significance of phenomenology in our time, focusing on its dialogue with empirical sciences and psychiatry.

January 17, 2022, 18:00-19:30

Zoom online seminar (registration required)

Language: English

